THE CARDINAL

The Ex-Champion Told His Eminence Some of His Best Stories.

SAID ARCHBISHOP WAS A BOY

"God Bless You," Said the Cardinal at Parting-"Same to You," Replied the "Ex."

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BALTIMORE, Al..., February 21.—
John L. Sullivan was received by Cardinal Gibbons this afternoon, and for half an hour the head of the Catholic church in America and the former fistic champion of the world entertained each other with stories and anecdotes.

"John L" took up the conversational end of the meeting, and told the cardinal some of his monologue stories, which he said were above his audience in the theatres. The cardinal brought in Father Lavan to look at Sullivan.

"How old are you, Mr. Sullivan?" asked the cardinal.

"I'm just forty-eight past," said the former champion.

"Indeed, why, I would have thought you were older than that, I am somewhat older; I am nearly seventy-three years old."

"O, you're a young fellow yet," said John, "You move around here like a boy,"

"What do you think of the art of John. "You move around here like a boy."

"What do you think of the art of self-defense?" asked the ex-champion.

"It think it is a very manly and healthful exercise," said the cardinal. "By the way, there used to be a man of some fame around here—Jako Kilrain. Did you know him?"

Sullivan smiled. "Yes, I met him and licked him," he said.

As the party passed out, the cardinal shook hands again with the ex-champion, and said: "Well, good-by, and God biess you."

"Same to you," thundered John L.

WANTS AID OF CONGRESS. American Olympic Committee to

American Olympic Committee to Ask for Big Appropriation.

NEW YORE, February 21.—If present plans are adhered to a bill will be introduced in this session of Congress to appropriate the sum of 1100,000 to defray the expenses of the American team of aithletes to compete in the Olympic games to be held in England in 1908. James B. Sullivan, president of the Amateur Athletic Union, will confer with President Rooswelt, who will again serve as honorary president of the American Olympic committee, before the bill is introduced.

Mr. Sullivan, who is strongly urging the appropriation, is sanguine over the prospects of the bill, and thinks it is absolutely necessary to enable the United States to be worthily represented in England. In discussing the project he pointed out that money was appropriated for the American exhibit at the Parls World's Fair in 1900 and that every exposition held in this country has received material financial aid from Congress, and, as this is a national affair, the same consideration should be shown.

Three Veteran Fox-Hunters.

Three Veteran Fox-Hunters.

ELKTON, MD., February 21.—Wicomico county claims the distinction of having some of the oldest followers of the hounds in Maryland. The oldest and best-known of the veteran Malone fox-hunters in the county are alexander, aged eighty-one years, and J. Bayard Ferdue, aged seventy-six years. These two and J. Wesley Turpin are probably the oldest fox-hunters in Maryland. The oldest fox-hunters in Maryland-pully Mr. Malone and Mr. Perdue, are in the saddle every week, and their endurance on the chase is something remarkable. Recently at a big fox-hunt in Barren Creek district the chase lasted over eight hours without a break. At this hunt Mr. Malone left his house at 2 o'clock in the morning, rode to Barren Creek, started in the chase of eight hours, and then rode the same animal back home, being in the saddle at least twenty hours without great

When asked to-day whether he would meet Bill Squires, the Australian, when meet Bill Squires, the Australian, when the latter gets to this country and issues his "defi" to the whole of the United Staes, the champion of all champions at once said: "Just show me that Squires is able to fight and that the public wants me to meet him, then find the proper purse and I will at once sign up. I am ready and anxious to fight, but am not going to return to the ring to meet a lemon. I have met too many of this brand, and the people got sour on me because it looked as though I was out looking for easy money. I want and need the money, but do not need it so badly that I will take a chance to face the charge of manslaughter to get it.

"Good old John L. Sullivan was the first to draw the color line, and I am willing to ablde by his decision. There is a big fellow named Jack Johnson that has been howling for a chance at the title for a long time. He is a negro. I know that I can beat him and beat him easily, but I will not take him on." the latter gets to this country and is-
